

THE PHILODRILL CORPORATION

Policies on Health & Safety, Training and Welfare of Philodrill Employees

PHILODRILL shall provide and maintain a safe and healthful work environment that complies with generally accepted business practices and regulatory requirements. The improvement of its employees' health and the prevention of accidents shall be the bedrock of its health and safety management system.

Management shall strive to eliminate any foreseeable hazards that may result to personal injuries/illnesses, damage to property and security losses by making loss prevention a direct responsibility of all employees.

Loss prevention shall be an integral part of all processes especially as they apply to the design, operation, and maintenance of facilities and equipment.

All employees shall perform their jobs in accordance with established procedures and operating philosophy.

Health Benefits

The company shall ensure that the health of its employees is adequately protected and that they are provided with financial assistance when they get sick or injured. It shall establish a Group Hospitalization Program wherein all regular employees are insured and shall continue to be insured with any credible insurance company.

Insurance shall be shouldered by the company as follows:

Employee's premium - 100% paid by the company

Employee dependent's premium - 50% paid by the company, 50% advanced by the company, to be deducted within a period of one year from the respective employee's salary.

Married employees shall have as their dependents their legitimate spouse and children twenty-one (21) years of age and below and children more than twenty-one (21) years old who are incapable of supporting themselves due to physical and/or mental defect. Single employees shall not be entitled to any dependent.

All regular employees including their dependents shall also be entitled to Medical/Dental/Optical care allowance the amount of which shall be set per calendar year as approved by the President.

Reimbursements shall be covered by an official receipt. If the reimbursable amount is within the petty cash limit, reimbursements shall be done through a Petty Cash Voucher, otherwise, reimbursements shall be done through a Request for Issuance of Check.

The Personnel Assistant shall monitor the balance of the medical allowance of each employee by using a Medical Card (MC), where reimbursements of medical expenses and a running balance of the medical allowance is posted. The reimbursable amount in the PCV or RIC shall be compared with the running balance in the MC.

If the amount being reimbursed is lower or equal to the balance appearing in the MC, the Personnel Assistant stamps "POSTED" on all the official receipts and posts the total amount reimbursed to the respective MC. If the amount being reimbursed is greater than the balance appearing in the MC, he stamps "POSTED" on all the official receipts and changes the amount appearing in the PCV or RIC to conform with the remaining balance. The reimbursed amount is then posted in the MC to properly close the account.

Only when the receipts have been properly marked "POSTED" shall the Cashier reimburse the employee the medical allowance.

Unused medical allowance shall be accumulated continuously for five (5) years which shall be converted to cash in the event of an employee's death or separation from the company without cause. Employees separated from the company for cause shall not be entitled to the cash conversion of the accumulated medical allowance.

Managerial employees and above who have been with the company for three (3) consecutive years on a regular status shall be entitled to company paid executive check-up the amount of which shall be set per calendar year as approved by the President:

Reimbursements shall be covered by a Request for Issuance of Check, an official receipt, a certification from the attending physician that an executive check-up was performed, and the results of the check-up.

Policy on Seminars & Trainings

The company shall finance the attendance of its officers and employees to in-house or public seminars/trainings. Full or partial subsidy shall depend on the nature of the seminar/training.

Full subsidy shall be extended to an employee when the nature of the seminar is directly related to the employee's job in the company. Partial subsidy may be extended to an employee if the nature of the seminar/ training is not directly related to the employee's job in the company but is directed towards the employee's growth and development as an individual. The percentage of the subsidy shall depend on management's discretion.

All regular employees, from rank-and-file up, maybe entitled to company financed in-house or public seminar/training. Upon resignation of an officer or employee, all seminar/training materials shall be turned over to the Property Custodian who shall then forward the same to the Personnel Department. The cost of lost seminar / training materials shall be collected from the resigning officer/employee.

An employee who was sent to attend a seminar / training outside the country shall be bound to stay with the company for a certain period depending on the amount spent for the seminar/training.

The amount of Educational assistance shall be set per calendar year as approved by the President.

Level	Disbursement
Primary	First week of March
High School	First week of March
College (four or five- year course)	50% payable 1st week of March 50% payable 1st week of September

The family of a regular employee who dies shall be given cash assistance by the company. This assistance is also extended to a regular employee whose relative, as defined below, dies.

When a regular employee dies, his/her Department Manager shall initiate the request for the cash assistance by obtaining a copy of the death certificate from the employee's family and presenting it to the Personnel Manager. Upon consultation with the Department Manager, the Personnel Manager may also arrange for a funeral wreath on behalf of the company.

In case of death of a regular employee's relative (parent, parent-in-law, legal spouse, or legitimate child), the employee concerned shall request for the cash assistance by presenting to his/her Department Manager a photocopy of the relative's death certificate.

All regular employees shall be entitled to a cash equivalent of one (1) sack of rice every month. Cash conversion shall be based on prevailing market price when the subsidy is given.

Employees Retirement Plan

The company shall ensure that employees who have served the company until their retirement shall be given appropriate financial reward and recognition through the establishment of the Philodrill Retirement Plan.
